(IN THE CLEAR)

The White House (IES) - Televised press conferences now are regarded as a big flop. Little public interest.

The White House (IES) - Neither the Pentagon censorship nor Brownell's suits against the press are regarded as harmful to Ike or his Administration. The newspapers of themselves have little public support.

The Pentagon (IES) - Atomic defense by armies in the field will bring World War I tactics back, experts say. Trenches will be in style again.

Capitol Hill (IES) - The man who keeps the cagey Senator Walter George up to date on foreign matters is Walter Bedell Smith, now in private life.
